CESI@noon
on Security in Europe: The “Post-Stockholm” Process
Brussels (Belgium), 14.11.2013

With a view to presenting the CESI Resolution “Putting the worker back at the heart of future strategic guidelines in terms of freedom, security and justice”, a “CESI at noon” session was organised at the CESI office in Brussels.

Eurofedop participated in the session with 10 representatives. Apart from Secretary General Bert Van Caelenberg, those representatives were John Clinton (Ireland), President of the Trade Council Justice as well as Gerrit van de Kamp (Netherlands), President of the Trade Council Security and colleagues from France and Austria.

For a report of the session and a survey of the items discussed and conclusions, see the CESI website www.cesi.org.
